

Types of ecological impact that are common at forest school:-

People pressure / noise / disturbance / trampling

Fire – on ground or in a container

Removing deadwood – for burning or for making things

Cutting live wood

Using trees and shrubs for support

Bringing organic materials / live & dead on to site

Collection of live organic materials

Minibeast hunting

Bringing non-organic materials onto site

Un-authorised fire lighting